

A Reminder To Our Fans

Spectators play an important role in promoting the ministry and reputation of Immanuel Lutheran School in the community. We want to ensure that the habits, language, and general reaction of all spectators, students, and adults alike, show the quality and sportsmanship of our school and present a Christ-like witness to others.

All spectators are Encouraged to:

1. Provide positive cheering and other moral support for the team members.
2. Show respect for the game officials and refrain from any unsportsmanlike act directed toward them.
3. Cooperate with and respond enthusiastically to our cheerleaders.
4. Censure fellow students and parents whose behavior is unbecoming.
5. Show respect for any injured player (regardless of team) when he/she is removed from the playing area.
6. Refrain from heckling or jeering members of opposing teams.
7. Refrain from applauding errors by opponents or penalties inflicted upon them.
8. Refrain from criticizing players or coaches for a loss of a game.

The following Actions-Whether at Home or Away- Shall Constitute for Removal from the Particular event and /or restriction from attendance at further events:

1. Disrespect of a game officials or school staff.
2. Disrespect to either home or visiting team's players, coaches, students, and parents.
3. Abuse of school property.
4. Use of profane language, obscene gestures, or similar behavior.
5. Actions which are a potential hazard to health, safety, or well-being of spectators or participants.
6. Other inappropriate behavior deemed sufficiently repetitive, flagrant, or severe by the staff or officials of the event.

Unsportsman like behavior on the part of students or parents that results in the censure by the referees will be referred to the principal and/or School Advisory Team for further disciplinary action.

As a parent of an ILS athlete, I recognize that my behavior at sports events will affect the focus and play of my child and his/her teammates. I also recognize that my behavior affects the reputation ILS has in the community. Therefore, I agree to abide by the spectator guidelines outlined above.
